

Please do not move forward with this attempt to weaken the State of Indiana's TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW. I already receive volumes of unwanted mailings. Please do not add to this invasion of personal privacy. These banks are doing just fine without the ability to call me whenever they like. If this action is successful it will only open the door for these banks to violate the privilege granted to them.